Honors Mission

The EWU Honors program offers a distinct and powerful education. The program brings together highly motivated students interested in generating innovative and socially just solutions to the local, regional, and global challenges of the 21st century. Through an innovative curriculum, small discussion-based classes, community engagement, and research, students feel empowered to address the challenges of today. The Honors program will help prepare students for graduate education and leadership positions in their chosen field.

EWU HONORS PROGRAM CORE VALUES

- Academic excellence: Through an engaging curriculum, we seek to develop and enhance the academic skills, intellectual curiosity, and commitment to lifelong learning of each student.

- Community: We seek to create a shared sense of belonging that explores both the benefits and responsibilities of being a part of a community.
- Leadership: We believe leadership is an intentionally collaborative process built on the values of individuals working to create positive social change.
- Civic Engagement: We provide opportunities for students to be civically active and engaged participants in their communities with a strong commitment and responsibility to work with others towards public purposes.
- Social Justice: We encourage Honors students to explain the root causes of injustice and discuss effective methods for preventing and responding to injustice.
- Research: We encourage Honors students to engage in research in their various disciplines to generate innovative approaches that promote a more just and equitable community.

How To Apply

Honors program application information can be found on the Honors Program (<https://inside.ewu.edu/honors/apply/>) web page. Priority deadline is February 1 for first-year and transfer students entering in fall term although applications will continue to be accepted after this date.

Benefits Of Being an Honors Student

- Classes are small, typically 15–20 students, taught by passionate faculty
- Engaging and passionate faculty who get to know you and support you in your academic and career goals
- Belong to a mindful and supportive Honors Community
- Study abroad and other travel opportunities
- Undergraduate research opportunities that prepare you for graduate school
- Co-curricular activities to support experiential learning outside the classroom
- Scholarships
