

HEALTH SERVICES ADMINISTRATION, GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

The Health Services Administration Certificate is intended to provide students who have an interest in working within the health field with an understanding of the many different types of health organizations that exist in the U.S. The courses also present students with an overview of the financial, legal and administrative issues that face all health administrators in today's market.

Required Courses

HSAD 500	US HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS	4
HSAD 510	HEALTH LAW	4
HSAD 520	HEALTH REIMBURSEMENT ISSUES	4
HSAD 545	HEALTH INFORMATICS	4
HSAD 598	SEMINAR IN HEALTH SERV ADMIN	4
Total Credits		20

Student Learning Outcomes—students will

- apply healthcare management concepts to current healthcare issues;
- demonstrate effective written, oral and presentation communication skills;
- analyze approaches to meet healthcare needs.