Undergraduate Programs

Mission of the BASW Program

The BASW program, based in a regional, comprehensive public university, prepares competent generalist practitioners to educate, broker, coordinate services and advocate for social change through the development of critical thinking, ethical practice, and the use of research and theory to deliver culturally responsive services.

Goals of the BASW Program

- Preparing graduates for generalist practice that integrates strengths, empowerment, ecosystems and evidence informed frameworks.
- Preparing graduates for ethical and culturally informed generalist practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Preparing graduates for effective generalist practice that promotes social justice within and across multiple systems.

- Responding to regional baccalaureate social work education needs.
- Develop lifelong learners who engage in critical thinking.

Accreditation

The School of Social Work at Eastern Washington University is accredited at the baccalaureate and master's levels by the Council on Social Work Education.

Graduates of the School's BASW Program will be able to:

2015 CSWE Core Competencies

- Demonstrate ethical and professional behavior.
- Engage diversity and difference in practice.
- Advance human rights and social, economic and environmental justice.
- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice.
- Engage in policy practice.

School of Social Work Curriculum

The curriculum is designed to meet the goals of the program within a framework that includes a broad liberal arts education and focused professional social work education and socialization.
Credit for life experience cannot be given for any social work course.

Grades

Social work classes and support classes with a grade <C are not acceptable for graduation.

The Field Practicum

The field practicum experience in the social work program is considered a vital element of the curriculum leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree. It is the major vehicle that permits the student to discover abilities and areas of growth, integrate theory with practice and explore the world of social welfare services. Students with prior volunteer or work experience will need to seek placements that offer new learning, different tasks, new contacts and opportunities for personal growth.

To enter the practicum, students must have completed all of the social work courses up to the point of practicum entry with a minimum average GPA ≥ 2.7 . The field practicum is open to majors only. Application for the practicum is completed in spring quarter of the student's junior year. Based upon their learning objectives, students are carefully matched with public or private agency settings in diverse areas of service. Students with prior volunteer or work experience are urged to seek placements that offer different tasks, new contacts and opportunities for personal growth.

Admissions

Application Procedures

There are two separate application procedures for admission. Students must be admitted to EWU and be admitted to the School of Social Work. Students seeking admission to the social work program must submit application materials prior to beginning the junior year, normally the winter or spring quarters. Pre-major advising is available through The Center for Academic Advising and Retention (CAAR) at advising@ewu.edu. Contact the School of Social Work at 509.359.6485 for any questions on the application requirements or process. Applications are available on the BASW web page (<https://www.ewu.edu/cpp/social-work/social-work/basw/>). Please visit this web page for application deadline information.

Admissions Criteria—students must be admitted to EWU (EWU Admissions) and be admitted to the School of Social Work.

- Applicants must have earned a minimum of 80 college credits.
- Applicants must have no more than two breath area core requirements (BACRs) to be completed at the time of their application.
- Courses that are in progress during the spring quarter in which the student is applying may be counted toward meeting the preceding criterion.

Applicants must have either one of the following:

A completed Direct Transfer Agreement (DTA) from a community college in Washington, an Associate of Arts Oregon Transfer (AAOT) from a community college in Oregon or a transfer degree from specific community colleges in Idaho and Montana. List of degrees that meet the DTA requirements (<http://catalog.ewu.edu/transfer-students/#transferagreementtext>).

Graduate Program

The Master of Social Work (MSW) Program was established in 1974, following authorization by the state government to meet the need for graduate professional education in social work in the Inland Northwest. The first class of graduate students was admitted in 1975, at which time the program was granted accreditation candidacy status by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Full accreditation was conferred in 1976, reaffirmed in 1984, 1993, 2001, 2008, and 2016.

The Mission of the Master of Social Work Program

The MSW Program, based in a regional, comprehensive public university, prepares advanced generalist practitioners to become effective leaders for socially just practice through the integration of skills, ethics, research, and theory, in advancing the well-being of individuals and society.

Goals of the Master of Social Work Program

- Preparing graduate students for advanced generalist practice integrating empowerment, ecosystems, and evidence informed frameworks.
- Preparing graduate students for ethical and culturally informed practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Preparing graduate students to become effective leaders in promoting socially just systems.
- Providing programs to address local and regional social work education needs.

Social Work Program Learning Outcomes: The School of Social Work's (SSW) MSW Programs are grounded in the CSWE Core Competencies (2015) that set educational standards for social work graduates with an MSW from EWU to:

- demonstrate ethical and professional behavior;
- engage diversity and difference in practice;
- advance human rights and social, economic, and environmental justice;
- engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice;
- engage in policy practice;
- engage with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities;
- assess individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities;
- intervene with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities; and
- evaluate practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

MSW Program Options

The SSW offers the following options to earn the MSW degree in a standard program of 90 credits (full-time and part-time) and in an advanced standing curriculum of 51 credits (full-time and part-time) in different locations. A placement in an agency practicum with supervision by agency staff with a MSW degree is a cornerstone to social work education and professional development. The SSW uses a one practicum placement model with practicum hours in an agency running concurrently with coursework and practicum seminars. For the details on practicum expectations, policies, and placement process, visit the "SSW-Practicum Information" section below.

Standard MSW Program (90 credits): Full-time study includes in-person core courses and part-time study uses a hybrid format (partial in-person and partial online). The SSW uses a cohort model by admitting students to a cohort to move through the sequenced course of study together. These programs use the same curriculum and are taught by the same SSW faculty and our community MSW adjuncts. For more on the MSW Program visit the Social Work-MSW (<http://catalog.ewu.edu/ps/sw/social-work/social-work-msw/>) catalog page. Visit SSW-MSW Application Information (<https://www.ewu.edu/cpp/social-work/social-work/apply/#application-cycles>) for application opening dates and closing deadlines, and the quarter for start of term for each program. A course of study for each option is available on the Social Work-MSW (<https://www.ewu.edu/cpp/social-work/social-work/msw/>) webpage under Program Options.

Choosing the program option, delivery method, cohort start, and location that best fits a student's lifestyle is an important decision for successful degree completion.

Full-time MSW Program - Cheney: The full-time MSW Program delivers coursework in-person on a weekly basis on the Cheney campus for the first year and in Spokane at the Catalyst building for the second year. A new cohort of students begins every fall quarter. The cohort follows the standard academic-year calendar (fall, winter, and spring) and completes their degree within 2 years, excluding summers. Because of the demands of the full-time program, full-time employment is not recommended while a student is in the program.

Part-Time MSW Program: The part-time MSW Programs have been designed for people who must retain a full-time job or other full-time obligations while earning a graduate education, and may reside throughout Washington, Idaho panhandle, or western Montana. The part-time MSW Program uses a hybrid format for course delivery, partial in-person and partial online. The part-time cohorts begin in the summer quarter and the course of study uses all four quarters (summer, fall, winter, and spring) for a total of 3 years. With the required in-person sessions, students must prepare their schedules to travel to the location of the program, either Everett, WA or Cheney, WA. The part-time MSW Programs includes differential tuition, therefore, there is a higher per-credit fee than the full-time MSW Program to cover faculty travel, use of off-campus facilities, and program coordination.

- Everett: This part-time program delivers coursework during the weeknights in-person every other week and with online modules on alternating weeks. A new cohort of students begins in the summer of even-numbered years with classes held in Everett, WA.
- Spokane: This part-time program delivers coursework in-person on three weekends per quarter with coursework online the remaining weeks. A new cohort of students begins in the summer of odd-numbered years.

Advanced Standing MSW Program (51 credits): This program allows graduates of a CSWE accredited BASW or BSW undergraduate program to complete the MSW Program with 51 credits. Visit the SSW MSW Application Information (<https://www.ewu.edu/cpp/social-work/social-work/apply/#application-cycles>) webpage for deadlines and start of term dates.

work/apply/#application-cycles) webpage for deadlines and start of term dates.

- Full-Time: A cohort of students for the advanced standing curriculum begins each summer with a seminar on generalist social work curriculum. The cohort joins the current cohort of full-time students each fall quarter. The advanced standing curriculum is completed with the summer seminar and 3 quarters (fall, winter, and spring).
- Part-Time: A cohort of students for the advanced standing curriculum begins with a summer seminar on the generalist social work curriculum and is joining a current cohort. The Everett PT MSW Program accepts students for the advanced standing curriculum on odd numbered years. The advanced standing curriculum is completed with the summer seminar and 6 quarters (winter, spring, summer, fall, winter, and spring). The Spokane PT MSW Program accepts students for the advanced standing curriculum on even numbered years.

Admission Requirements for the MSW Program

The MSW Program results in a professional degree that is required for eventual licensing for social workers in the State of Washington post-graduation. For social work licensing information, visit the "WA State Department of Health" website. Admission to the SSW MSW Programs is dependent on application materials submitted during the regular application cycle for the program. The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) sets the standards for social work education in the U.S. These standards along with the EWU Graduate Programs policies, and the SSW policies set the foundation for the admission criteria.

A GRE examination is not required for admission to the MSW programs (SSW policy). Previous life or work experience cannot be substituted for course credit (CSWE standard). Previous graduate coursework used towards an earned graduate degree cannot be used towards the MSW (EWU policy). When necessary, the EWU Graduate Programs policy allows graduate students to complete their graduate degree over a six year period. Previous MSW Program credits from EWU or another CSWE accredited MSW Program (not used to earn a degree) may be reviewed for potential credit in the EWU MSW Program if earned within the past six years. Admission criteria questions, contact the Graduate Program Director MSW@ewu.edu

Admission Requirements Specific to Standard MSW Program

- successful completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university; and,
- a cumulative GPA ≥ 3.00 in the most recent undergraduate degree; and,
 - Upon recommendation of the Graduate Program Director, the Dean of Graduate Programs may admit a limited number of students, with a GPA < 3.00 , based upon considerations which includes performance in relevant graduate courses and faculty evaluations.
- completion of the EWU Graduate Application, including Social Work required essays, resume, and letters of recommendation, and payment of the application fee; and
- if an International Student, meet the EWU requirements for an International Graduate Application.

Admission Requirements Specific to Advanced Standing MSW Program

Contact the Graduate Program Director to discuss the program, admission requirements, transfer questions, or other graduate program questions at MSW@ewu.edu

The Curriculum Delivery Plan

The MSW curriculum comprises sequenced generalist and specialized curriculum. Full-time students complete the curriculum in two years or six quarters. Part-time students complete the program in a sequenced manner over the course of three years or 12 quarters, including summer quarters.

MSW Program Curriculum

Overview of the Curriculum: The MSW Program prepares professional social workers to engage in advanced generalist practice across multiple systems, to provide leadership for organizational practice and community change, and to promote social, economic, and environmental justice. The curriculum consists of a foundation for generalist practice and specialized curriculum for a comprehensive advanced generalist social work education. The SSW MSW Program curriculum does not require a comprehensive exam or thesis. The EWU graduate courses have the 500- and 600-level course numbers. Undergraduate courses are not typically counted towards a graduate degree.

The generalist curriculum focuses on social work practice, social welfare policy, and theories of human behavior in the social environment in a sequence of core courses. Courses include SOWK 532, SOWK 533, and SOWK 540. SOWK 541 develops knowledge of diverse populations with whom and on behalf of whom, social workers practice. The course also explores practice principles for working in an increasingly diverse society. SOWK 553 and SOWK 550 continue the development of practice knowledge and skills. The generalist curriculum prepares students for practice with systems of different sizes through the courses of SOWK 531 and SOWK 530. Students learn to critically evaluate and use research in their practice in the course SOWK 525.

The specialized curriculum prepares students for advanced generalist practice with systems of all sizes (individual, family, groups, communities, and organizations). Students develop leadership skills working with clients and communities to advance social justice, particularly for socially excluded, at-risk, or marginalized populations. Courses such as SOWK 602 and SOWK 603 present theoretical models and specific skills in engagement, assessment, and intervention with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. SOWK 568 examines the political context for decisions that affect the lives of clients. SOWK 526 covers advanced research and evaluation methodologies.

The practicum experience and its accompanying integrative seminar, run concurrently with the coursework. To complete the course of study beyond the core curriculum, the practicum experience, and practicum seminar, students are expected to take a total of 16 elective credits in the standard MSW Program and 12 elective credits in the advanced standing MSW Program. The course of study associated with the program option designates when electives can be taken during the academic year or over the summer term. The majority of the SSW electives offered are online either asynchronous or synchronous.

MSW Practicum Experience

The MSW Program requires an agency field practicum and accompanying integrative seminars sequenced over the course of study, SOWK 571 and SOWK 671, running concurrently with coursework. Before beginning the generalist practicum, students participate in the course SOWK 580. After completing this course, each student is placed in a social service agency or other public or private organization related to the welfare of people, community, environment, or society. Students will need to meet the essential skills expected in practicum placements in order to accept a placement, be it a background check, travel requirements, or other essential expectations outlined by the field placement.

Direction and instruction are provided by a faculty member of the SSW (referred to as Faculty Field Instructor [FFI] or a Faculty Field Liaison [FFL]) working collaboratively with a designated practicum site supervisor (Agency Field Instructor [AFI]). The faculty member, the agency site supervisor and the student negotiate a contract specifying student learning goals, potential practicum learning experiences, and the means for evaluating the practicum learning. EWU SSW has agreements to work with diverse rural and urban agencies and organizations throughout the state of Washington and neighboring states as practicum placement settings. Students who wish to complete practicum requirements within their current or former workplace must indicate this desire to the School at the time of admission. This indication does not automatically ensure a practicum in the workplace. Consideration will be given to each request individually. Practicum placements in the workplace must conform with all of the School's existing field practicum requirements.

The full outline of social work practicum expectations and policies are outlined in the SSW BASW/MSW Practicum Manual available on the SSW website under "Field Education".

Generalist Field Practicum Hours in Summary

- Full time students complete 320 hours (160 hours per quarter; approximately 16 hours per week) in practicum and 10 hours per quarter in practicum seminar for a total of 340 hours in two quarters.
- Part-time students complete 320 hours (106 hours per quarter; approximately 8-10 hours per week) in practicum and 9 hours per quarter in practicum seminar (27) for a total of 347 hours in three quarters.

Specialized Field Practicum Hours in Summary

- Full time students complete 600 hours (an average of 20 hours per week) in practicum and a total of 10 hours per quarter in practicum seminar for a total of 630 hours in three quarters
- Part-time students complete 580 hours (an average of 10 hours per week) and a total of 9 hours per quarter in practicum seminar (45 total hours) for a total of 625 hours in five quarters.

MSW Innovative Program Combinations

The School of Social Work offers several ways in which students can focus their programs of study to meet their professional educational goals. Interested students should contact the Graduate Program Director for additional information and/or the Directors associated with the programs listed below.

Child Welfare Training & Advancement Program (CWTAP)

The CWTAP is a federally funded, Title IV-E partnership between Washington's Department of Children, Youth and Families (DCYF) and participating public universities. Eastern is proud to be part of this successful, long-standing partnership. CWTAP is designed for current child welfare professionals pursuing their MSW, and for other MSW students interested in child welfare as a career path. In exchange for receiving financial assistance, CWTAP students agree to work for Washington's DCYF following graduation. CWTAP students complete their practicum in DCYF offices. Contact Diana LeBlanc, dpatterson@ewu.edu

Graduate Certificates and Other Certification

A graduate certificate is a coherent academic program approved by the Graduate Affairs Council and listed in the university catalog. Students must apply to receive this certificate by filling out a Graduate Application with the code of the certificate program they are applying for. Graduate certificate programs are normally between 12 and 20 credits in specified courses from a given discipline or set of related disciplines. Students applying for a graduate certificate may use up to 12 credits toward their MSW electives. Exceptions to this are noted below.

Addiction Studies Graduate Certificate: This 30-credit Addiction Studies Graduate Certificate is designed for persons who have completed a bachelor's degree with a background in social work or a related field and are interested in obtaining coursework that can lead to certification as a Substance Use Disorder Professional. Contact Addiction Studies at adst@ewu.edu

Disability Studies: The Disability Studies certificate program will show you that disability is part of the tapestry of a diverse society. It emphasizes "universal access (<https://sites.ewu.edu/access4all/about-us/universal-access/>)," the philosophy that society should be inclusive of people of all diverse backgrounds and traits, and that the responsibility for diversity transcends traditional identity-based characteristics. Universal access (UA) embraces an approach that responsible societies do not just accommodate minorities, but are constructed for all people, majority and minority, typical and atypical. Contact Disability Studies Director Ryan Parrey, PhD, rparrey@ewu.edu (rmackelprang@ewu.edu)

Palliative Care: This 12-credit certificate of completion in Palliative Care addresses the physical, emotional, mental, social, and spiritual suffering generated by chronic, life-limiting, life-threatening, and terminal illness. Courses include Grief & Loss, Death & Dying, and Introduction to Palliative Care. Contact Rie Kobayashi, Professor and Interim Director of Aging Studies, rkobayashi@ewu.edu (areedy@ewu.edu)

School Social Worker Certification (Not an EWU certification/only WA State): For students interested in school social work, this elective is required by the State of Washington, School Social Work and School Law. This elective is generally offered online in the winter quarter. Information is available online at the WA Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Education Staff Associate (ESA)-School Social Work.

Center for Aging Studies

The Center provides interested MSW students opportunities to focus their course work and practicum experience in practice with older adults. The Center has strong community and organizational linkages to develop programs that better meet the needs of our aging population. Students may receive mentoring to participate in a Gerontology Symposium that is connected to the EWU Research and Creative Works Symposium. Contact Rie Kobayashi, Professor and Interim Director of Aging Studies, rkobayashi@ewu.edu (areedy@ewu.edu)

Dual & Combined Degrees: Those interested in a dual or a combined degree with their MSW will want to consult with the contacts listed for each degree. For further MSW information, contact the Graduate Program Director at MSW@ewu.edu

MSW/JD (Law) Degree: This degree is offered in collaboration with Gonzaga University Law School. Candidates must apply and be admitted to both Gonzaga School of Law and EWU School of Social Work via each school's established admissions process; before they will be considered for admission to the dual degree program (Law candidates must complete the LSAT exam.) For information about admission to the dual degree program, candidates should contact the admission offices of both Gonzaga Law School and Eastern Washington University School of Social Work, simultaneously, and go through the admission process for each school. For more information contact Amanda Reedy, PhD, areedy@ewu.edu

MSW/MPA - Master Degree in Social Work and Public

Administration: This degree allows students to prepare for professional employment in both social work and public administration. There are 122 total credits required for the MSW/MPA for two year and part time students and 83 total credits for MSW/MPA Advanced Standing students. Students must be accepted into both programs before graduating from one in order to qualify for the Dual Degree Program. Contact MPA Director Courtney Jensen, PhD, cejensen@ewu.edu

Combined Degree - MA in Addiction Studies: This degree allows students to obtain a MA in Addiction Studies using sixteen approved credits from the MSW program to serve as specialized content. Students interested in this degree option must be currently enrolled in the MSW program or recently graduated from the MSW program within the past three years. The number of credits needed to graduate with this degree is 56. This program provides the addiction-specific course competencies required by the Department of Health to satisfy the academic requirements of the Substance Use Disorder Professional (SUDP) credential in Washington state. Additional requirements for the SUDP include passing the NCC AP examination and completing 1,500 supervised addiction counseling hours. Please contact Addiction Studies for details and application information. Contact Addiction Studies, adst@ewu.edu

Student Organizations

Students are encouraged to become members of the School of Social Work committees, work groups, and organizations. Student led organizations specific to Social Work include the following.

- UNDERGRADUATE & GRADUATE: IOTA BETA Chapter of the PHI ALPHA Honor Society for Social Work. The purpose of the National Honor Society is to recognize the academic achievement of undergraduate and graduate students of social work as well as to honor local practitioners who have made significant contributions to the field of social work. The Iota Beta Chapter supports and conducts local events, activities, and initiatives to further social work values at EWU and to contribute to the surrounding community. Membership is by invitation only. Students (BASW and MSW) are invited to join the Iota Beta Chapter after each quarter (fall, winter, and spring) if they have earned a GPA that is in the top 35% of the program after completing a set number of credits in the program. The students must be in good standing with the SSW program and the University. To learn more about the International Honor Society, Phi Alpha, and the School's Chapter, Iota Beta, visit the School of Social Work EWU webpage.

• GRADUATE: MSWSA – The Master in Social Work Student

Association. The mission of the MSWSA is to be a voice for graduate students in the School of Social Work program at EWU, to promote student leadership in the affairs and concerns of the School by assisting in the development of curriculum and policies. The MSWSA acts as a liaison between faculty, students, and the University and surrounding communities. It serves as a support for students and a clearinghouse of information about the School, the University, professional associations, and opportunities for volunteer and career pathways. The organization seeks to operate while abiding by the Social Work Code of Ethics and the EWU Student Conduct Code. Anyone enrolled in the Eastern Washington University graduate social work program at any School of Social Work site is a member of the MSWSA. Graduate students are encouraged to be active members of the MSWSA. Additional information about the MSWSA is available on the School of Social Work EWU webpage.
