

HUMANITIES MINOR

---

A Humanities minor is designed for students who wish to broaden and deepen their understanding and skills in selected areas of the traditional liberal arts.

Note:

- HUMN courses emphasize analysis, history, and theory of a subject;
- practicums, workshops, internships, studio, and applied courses are usually not applicable;
- students should seek prior approval of the program coordinator for course selections.

Required Courses—in addition to courses used for BACRs Students desiring to complete a Humanities Minor must take 20 credits with at least 10 of these credits from upper division (300- or 400-level) courses. Lower division credits that are being used to fulfill a BACR will not count toward the Minor.
